

I H R A

Ivy Hills Residents' Association

Ivy Hills Residents' Association Board Meeting

The September 18, 2019 meeting was held at Cross & Crown Lutheran Church at 7:00 p.m.

Board members in attendance were Greg McMullen, Tom Kashin, Katie Sammon, Chris Sammon, Amber House, Alison McConnell, Kathy Halleck.

Minutes:

- Alison McConnell moved to approve the July 17, 2019 meeting minutes; Amber House seconded. The minutes as written were approved.

Treasurer's Report:

- Katie Sammon presented the current financial report including current bills due.
- There are currently 319 paid households, 202 individuals attended the picnic. It was suggested that the lack of written communication affected the households paying dues this year.
- Greg asked for confirmation of the interest amount from the Money Market account.
- A new directory should be budgeted for in 2020.

Activities:

- Participation in the Garage Sale was up from 2018 levels this year.
- Moving the Picnic to Sunday evening was viewed as a huge success, with much greater attendance. It was suggested that activities for older children / teens be considered for 2020 (such as Laser Tag) with the expected increase in attendance in those age groups.
- The location for the Annual Meeting needs to be determined quickly for sending out in a newsletter
- The Ivy Hills Dining Club is meeting this coming Friday, September 20, 2019 at Tried and True Alehouse. It will be an adult only event this month.

Hospitality:

- Ann Coon is participating in the Committee
- The Hospitality Committee will deliver the donations to Joey Koons.

Social Media:

- The neighborhood Facebook page has been fairly quiet.

Newsletter:

- Alison volunteered to create a short newsletter to be issued prior to the Annual Meeting date.

Website:

- Website is currently up to date.

Streets/Snow Removal:

- No report from Scott

BRAG:

-

Old Business

- No updates were available for the Castleton Revitalization Study, improvements to 1-69 / I-465 including the sound wall, and new uses for the Nickel Plate Railroad tracks.

New Business

- No New Business was discussed.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:35 PM