

Ivy Hills Residents' Association Board Meeting

January 17, 2017 Meeting

In lieu of a regular business meeting, a retreat was held in the home of Jonathan Eriksen. There was a brief business meeting to approve the minutes from the prior meeting and to hear the current financials. Since the annual meeting in November, the new Treasurer resigned and another resident, Katie Sammon, has taken over the position.

Minutes: Annual Meeting minutes were approved as submitted.

Treasurer's Report: Tom Kashin presented the financial report for the current period.

Board members and residents in attendance were: Greg McMullen, Sherry Myers, Mike Harkness, Chris Sammon, Katie Sammon, Jonathan Eriksen, Stephanie Eriksen, Kathy LaPorte, Anne Campbell, Kathy Halleck, Stephanie Rhinesmith, Alison McConnell and Amber House.

Greg asked that this meeting be devoted to gathering ideas from residents/board members for enhancing and improving our community. Some of the ideas thrown out include but are not limited to the following:

- Adding a clubhouse and/or pool
- Sidewalks on 79th Street
- Matching mailboxes
- Speed bumps on 79th St
- Street cleaning
- Paving of streets
- Social clubs
- Periodic chipper/shredder services and yard waste removal
- Christmas decorations (lumanaries)
- New sign at 75th and Camelback

The ideas were discussed and prioritized and will be discussed further.
