

Ivy Hills Association Board Meeting

January 15, 2014 meeting was held at Cross & Crown

Board members in attendance were: Greg McMullen, Kim Huizinga, Amber House, Diana Ruschhaupt, SteffanieRhinesmith, Alison McConnell, and Sherry Myers. Also in attendance were Anne Campbell and Gary Loveless, the Mayor's Neighborhood liaison.

Gary Loveless opened the meeting with a recap of the city's response to the recent snowstorm. He noted that the next issue facing the city is the repair of potholes resulting from the freezing and thawing associated with winter weather conditions. Gary announced the Great Indy Cleanup will be held on April 19. The city will host the launch of a tax filing service for citizens in need; the launch will be held at Broad Ripple Park.

Minutes: Minutes from the Annual Meeting held on November 20, 2013 were approved as submitted.

Treasurer's Report:

- Kim presented the year-end profit/loss numbers as well as the numbers for 2014 as of January 15. The primary expense paid this year was for snow removal.

Activities:

- Amber House has taken over as Activities chair. Amber had nothing to report at this time but plans to meet with Sarah Terrill to get an understanding of her responsibilities.

Communications

- No report

Crime Watch

- Steffanie indicated there have been fewer reports of crime possibly due to the bad weather

Hospitality

- No activity to report at this time

Streets/Snow Removal

- No report

Website

- Kim has updated the membership list on the website

BRAG

- The annual meeting will be held at Hillcrest CC on 2/12; Crime Watch Captains' meeting will be 2/26 (location to be announced); BRAG will start their annual giving campaign; the Business Alliance Directory will be published soon so local businesses will have the chance to be listed for a moderate cost

Cross & Crown:

- No report

GACC:

- No report

There were no updates on old business and no new business items.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:00