

Ivy Hills Association Board Meeting

Meeting held May 21, 2014 at Cross & Crown

Board members in attendance were: Greg McMullen, Jonathan Eriksen, SteffanieRhinesmith, Amber House, Scott Motter, Diana Ruschhaupt, and Sherry Myers. Also in attendance was Gary Loveless, the liaison to the Mayor's office.

Gary Loveless started the meeting with an update on the following initiatives:

- Drainage problems will be fixed near the train stop site (near Kroger)
- The empty medical building on Binford will become an Alzheimer's Center
- 71st Street Trail will be completed from Johnson Road to Allisonville Road
- The Japanese Society has plans to build a Japanese Society Center in Skiles Test Park; plans include updating the park ($15 million project)
- A new Subaru dealership is opening on 96th Street

Minutes:

- The minutes from the prior meetings were approved as submitted

Treasurer's Report:

- Greg McMullen presented the financials to the group; we are currently looking for a new treasurer; Kim will continue to do reports until a replacement is found and trained

Activities:

- Amber reported that plans for picnic and garage sale are moving along nicely; garage sale date was moved to August 2 to coincide with Cross & Crown garage sale

Crime Watch:

- Steffanie said there was little to report; not much crime activity reported lately

Hospitality:

- Diana reported that she was caught up through March

Communications:

- Jonathan indicated a long version of the newsletter will be out soon and will include "dues paid" list

Streets/Snow Removal:

- No snow removal activity; Scott commented on areas of the neighborhood where sidewalks are buckling and he stressed the need for residents to trim trees that hang low over sidewalks and also encouraged residents to trim grass that has grown over the edge of streets and sidewalks

BRAG:

- Alison was absent but sent the following information:
 - The Farmers Market has a new home at Lawrence North HS North Parking Lot
 - BRAG golf outing/fundraiser will be August 11 at Hillcrest CC (noon shotgun start)
 - The newest edition of BRAG directory will be out in June
